

U.S. Congressman James E. Clyburn

Sixth District of South Carolina

“I am pleased the delegation is working together to build our important tourism industry and create economic development opportunities by making Myrtle Beach accessible via a major interstate. We will continue our efforts to make I-73 a reality.”