

U.S. Congressman

Tim Scott

First District of South Carolina

“When thinking of the I-73 project there are three things that come to mind: jobs, jobs, jobs. It will provide construction jobs, support the integral tourist industry and create the infrastructure for jobs for years to come. Furthermore, it will finally provide the much-needed route away from the coast in case of a major storm. I fully support I-73!”