

Posted on Tue, May. 29, 2007

Transportation big may visit Grand Strand

By Zane Wilson

The U.S. Secretary of Transportation is expected to be in the Myrtle Beach area on Friday for "a first- hand view of the region's needs" according to a press release from U.S. Sen. Lindsey Graham, R-Seneca.

The visit from Mary Peters, which is still in the planning stages, coincides with a gathering of representatives from the various states traversed by Interstate 73 on its route from Myrtle Beach to Michigan.